My aunt Dianne heard God call her name, He quietly whispered. I know that you are tired my child come and take your rest my child. Dianne that sweet spirit you had will be missed, always lending a helping hand where it was needed. Over last few days my thoughts have gone back to 35 over years ago ,and how you were my every Saturday child care provider when Rudy & I had to work, I was reminded by LaToya how good those cakes were you could cook. We love you and will miss you, Until we met again in that Great Mansion God has prepared for us. Your niece Valerie
